WRITING TASK

Write 80-100 words about one practical way students can reduce waste at school. Include a clear example and explain its benefit.

Answer WRITING TASK: Students can reduce waste by setting up clearly labeled recycling stations in every classroom. For example, separate bins for paper, plastic, and general waste make it easy to sort rubbish correctly. A student team can check the bins each week and remind classmates about common mistakes. This practical system keeps recyclable materials out of landfill and helps students build responsible daily habits. It also gives the school useful data about which kinds of waste it produces most often, so future reduction projects can focus on the biggest problems.
